Dear Dennis Raymond Perrin

The University is pleased to offer you a place as a student on the course leading to the Master in Creativity and Innovation offered by The Edward de Bono Institute for Creative Thinking and Innovation commencing in October 2026. Congratulations!

I am pleased to inform you that the University agreed with the recommendation of the Edward de Bono Institute for Creative Thinking and Innovation that you be registered as a full-time student on this course in terms of Regulation 15 of the Admissions Regulations.

You will be officially registered for your course and granted access to all student portals once your qualifications and the required original certificates have been verified. After arriving in Malta, please present your qualifications on one of the following dates: <http://www.um.edu.mt/admissionsverification>.

Total Tuition Fee: Eur 10,800
Yr 1 - Eur10,800 Yr 2 - NIL

You are requested to pay the tuition fees due by Wednesday, 07 October 2026

Your personalised link for payment of the deposit fee is www.um.edu.mt/pay/coursedeposit/2616801. A deposit of €1000 to signify acceptance of the University's offer for a place on the course is required. We recommend that if you are accepting our offer you submit payment by not later than Tuesday, 13 October 2026. The initial deposit fee will be credited toward the remaining tuition fees which are to be paid by not later than the commencement date of the course. Relevant payment instructions are available at <http://www.um.edu.mt/coursepayment>.

Book your accommodation through <https://www.um.edu.mt/international/students/accommodation/>. A 20% deposit will be required to secure the reservation. Due to high demand, it is advisable to book as early as possible.

The mode of delivery of this Masters programme will be as follows:

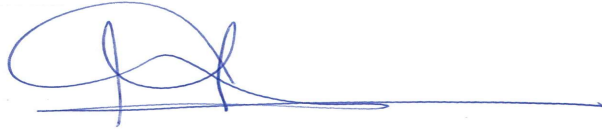

One intensive week at the start of each semester. During these weeks (two in total, one in October, and one in February), lectures will take place in-person. The first intensive week will take place from Monday 12th October to Saturday 17th October - 08:30 - 17:30. The date for the intensive week taking place in February 2027 will be communicated in due course. The remaining weeks of each semester will be a combination of remote (using Zoom in real time) and online (asynchronous) lectures. Please keep in touch with the Institute: instituteofthinking@um.edu.mt

Non-EU nationals requiring a visa to travel to Malta must apply for a Short-Stay C-Visa. A Long-Stay D-Visa can only be issued for full-time programmes that require physical attendance throughout the course of studies. Further information is available at: <https://www.um.edu.mt/international/students/visas/>

It is important to carry this letter with you whilst you are travelling to Malta should you be required to present it at border controls. We also advise you to keep this letter in a safe place for the entire duration of your course.

On behalf of the University of Malta, I wish you success in your studies.

Yours sincerely

05100088 2616801

STEP 1 - ACTIVATE THE UM IT ACCOUNT The activation code which appears at the bottom right hand corner of this notice is required to activate your UM IT Account. Following activation, you will be allocated a University email address and access to other IT facilities and services offered at the University.

If you already have a name.surname.XX@um.edu.mt University student email address, you do not need to re-activate your UM IT Account. However, if you have forgotten your username or password, you can follow the link below.

You can activate your UM IT Account (or reset your password) from any computer connected to the Internet by following the instructions available at: www.um.edu.mt/itservices/activate.

Please note that you can also activate the UM IT Account by logging in to any IT Services workstation (found at various locations on campus, including the IT Services Building and Main Library) using the Username: newuser & Password: newuser.

STEP 2 - DOWNLOAD MY UM APP My UM is the official app of the University of Malta, and is available for Android and iOS devices. My UM features key information such as UM services opening hours, staff directory, the Msida campus map, as well as access to various services and personalised information. As a student at UM, the app will keep you in the know about UM news and events, assignment deadlines, your results, library services, VLE, eSIMS and other useful information.

Download My UM from: www.um.edu.mt/myum

University Mail:

It is important that you start monitoring any emails sent to your UM email address. Any notices sent to you on your University email address are considered as official notices duly published.

eSIMS: The eSIMS portal allows you to view your personal details, registration for study-units, results and other course information.

Online Enrolment: Once your qualifications and any required original certificates have been verified, you will be requested to enrol online on the My UM app in order to confirm that you have commenced your studies. If you are following a fee-payable course, you will also need to pay the relevant tuition/annual enrolment fees at the Maltapost branch, Administration Building or via Internet Banking. Your Faculty will inform you about the procedure to register for the study-units of your course.

IT FACILITIES AND SERVICES PROVIDED BY IT SERVICES Your UoM IT Account will enable you to access the IT facilities and services provided by IT Services, including open access workstations, printing, scanning and wireless Internet access. More information about IT facilities and services is available at: www.um.edu.mt/itservices.
